Defendants.

A motion has been filed on behalf of non-party witness James Pietro seeking to have a portion of his deposition testimony sealed. The record does not reflect a sufficient basis to warrant the sealing of the deposition transcript. The motion is denied.

By letter dated March 29, 2006, counsel for the Department of Correctional Services (“DOCS”) has requested clarification regarding the parameters of disclosure regarding the personnel files ordered to be produced pursuant to this Court’s discovery order (Docket No. 260). The documents produced pursuant to that order shall be produced to all counsel of the remaining defendants in this case. All counsel are subject to the restrictions set forth in the March 21, 2006 Decision & Order. In addition, the party producing the personnel files will redact social security numbers, home addresses and telephone numbers, personal family information and personal health information.

So Ordered.
